

FUN & PHILOSOPHY

A scientific truth does not triumph by convincing its opponents and making them see the light, but rather because its opponents eventually die and a new generation grows up that is familiar with it.

– Max Planck

A diplomat is a man who always remembers a woman's birthday but never remembers her age.

– Robert Frost

More and more people care about religious tolerance as fewer and fewer care about religion.

– Alexander Chase

Age is an issue of mind over matter. If you don't mind, it doesn't matter.

– Mark Twain

I don't believe one grows older. I think that what happens early on in life is that at a certain age one stands still and stagnates.

– T. S. Eliot

The great secret that all old people share is that you really haven't changed in seventy or eighty years. Your body changes, but you don't change at all. And that, of course, causes great confusion.

– Doris Lessing

Half of the modern drugs could well be thrown out of the window, except that the birds might eat them.

– Martin Henry Fischer

There was no "before" the beginning of our universe, because once upon a time there was no time.

– John D. Barrow

We seem to have a compulsion these days to bury time capsules in order to give those people living in the next century or so some idea of what we are like.

– Alfred Hitchcock

Always forgive your enemies - nothing annoys them so much.

– Oscar Wilde

Forgiveness is the remission of sins. For it is by this that what has been lost, and was found, is saved from being lost again.

– Saint Augustine

I've never seen a monument erected to a pessimist.

– Paul Harvey

Men who have a pierced ear are better prepared for marriage - they've experienced pain and bought jewelry.

– Rita Rudner

The secret of getting things done is to act!

– Dante Alighieri

Christmas is the time when kids tell Santa what they want and adults pay for it. Deficits are when adults tell government what they want and their kids pay for it.

– Richard Lamm

Bill Gates is a very rich man today... and do you want to know why? The answer is one word: versions.

– Dave Barry

Cyberspace. A consensual hallucination experienced daily by billions of legitimate operators, in every nation, by children being taught mathematical concepts.

– William Gibson

The newest computer can merely compound, at speed, the oldest problem in the relations between human beings, and in the end the communicator will be confronted with the old problem, of what to say and how to say it.

– Edward R. Murrow
