Happiness grows at our own firesides, and is not to be picked in strangers' gardens.

– Douglas William Jerrold

If you don't like something, change it. If you can't change it, change your attitude.

– Maya Angelou

I never considered a difference of opinion in politics, in religion, in philosophy, as cause for withdrawing from a friend.

– Thomas Jefferson

Rarely do we find men who willingly engage in hard, solid thinking. There is an almost universal quest for easy answers and half-baked solutions. Nothing pains some people more than having to think.

– Martin Luther King, Jr.

A stockbroker urged me to buy a stock that would triple its value every year. I told him, "At my age, I don't even buy green bananas."

– Claude Pepper

You want to look fashionable and put-together, not like you hit every sale rack this season.

– Tommy Hilfiger

If love is the answer, could you please rephrase the question?

– Lily Tomlin

A word to the wise ain't necessary – it's the stupid ones that need the advice.

– Bill Cosby

An escalator can never break: it can only become stairs. You should never see an Escalator Temporarily Out Of Order sign, just Escalator Temporarily Stairs. Sorry for the convenience.

– Mitch Hedberg

A good question is never answered. It is not a bolt to be tightened into place but a seed to be planted and to bear more seed toward the hope of greening the landscape of idea.

– John Ciardi

A foolish consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds, adored by little statesmen and philosophers and divines.

– Ralph Waldo Emerson

Do not pray for easy lives. Pray to be stronger men.

– John F. Kennedy

A peace is of the nature of a conquest; for then both parties nobly are subdued, and neither party loser.

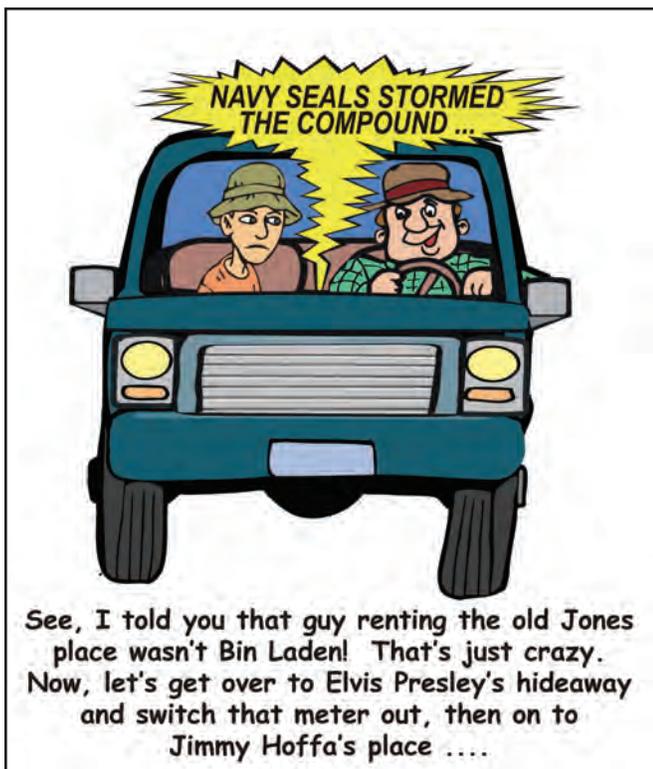

– William Shakespeare

A fanatic is one who can't change his mind and won't change the subject.

– Winston Churchill

Big jobs usually go to the men who prove their ability to outgrow small ones.

– Theodore Roosevelt
