

FUN & PHILOSOPHY

Learn from yesterday, live for today, hope for tomorrow. The important thing is not to stop questioning.

– Albert Einstein

My great hope is to laugh as much as I cry; to get my work done and try to love somebody and have the courage to accept the love in return.

– Maya Angelou

The hope of a secure and livable world lies with disciplined nonconformists who are dedicated to justice, peace and brotherhood.

– Martin Luther King, Jr.

Associate with men of good quality if you esteem your own reputation; for it is better to be alone than in bad company.

– George Washington

The keys to patience are acceptance and faith. Accept things as they are, and look realistically at the world around you. Have faith in yourself and in the direction you have chosen.

– Ralph Marston

Any doctor will admit that any drug can have side effects, and that writing a prescription involves weighing the potential benefits against the risks.

– Mark Udall

Enlightened leadership is spiritual if we understand spirituality not as some kind of religious dogma or ideology but as the domain of awareness where we experience values like truth, goodness, beauty, love and compassion, and also intuition, creativity, insight and focused attention.

– Deepak Chopra

It was once said that the moral test of government is how that government treats those who are in the dawn of life, the children; those who are in the twilight of life, the elderly; and those who are in the shadows of life, the sick, the needy and the handicapped.

– Hubert H. Humphrey

Change, like sunshine, can be a friend or a foe, a blessing or a curse, a dawn or a dusk.

– William Arthur Ward

Probably the happiest period in life most frequently is in middle age, when the eager passions of youth are cooled, and the infirmities of age not yet begun; as we see that the shadows, which are at morning and evening so large, almost entirely disappear at midday.

– Eleanor Roosevelt

What we have done for ourselves alone dies with us; what we have done for others and the world remains and is immortal.

– Albert Pike

Strength does not come from winning. Your struggles develop your strengths. When you go through hardships and decide not to surrender, that is strength.

– Arnold Schwarzenegger

We don't accomplish anything in this world alone... and whatever happens is the result of the whole tapestry of one's life and all the weavings of individual threads form one to another that creates something.

– Sandra Day O'Connor

We, the People, recognize that we have responsibilities as well as rights; that our destinies are bound together; that a freedom which only asks what's in it for me, a freedom without a commitment to others, a freedom without love or charity or duty or patriotism, is unworthy of our founding ideals, and those who died in their defense.

– Barack Obama
